BBQ

The annual Lavaca County 4-H chicken BBQ, which will include  $\frac{1}{2}$  chicken, potatoes, beans, and a dessert - all for \$10.00, will be held on Sunday, October 3. Please turn in all money and unsold tickets ASAP but no later than September 24.

Everyone is encouraged to do what they can to make this event a success.

We will need help on Saturday, October 2 to peel potatoes beginning at 7 a.m. at the K.C.Hall. Help is also needed on Sunday, October 3 to serve plates from 10:00 to 11:30, 11:30 to 1:00 and 1:00 to end. Please call the Extension Office to sign up to work. To be eligible to apply for the county awards, members must either sell 20 tickets or work a shift.

Remember that each club is responsible for providing cookies for dessert. These should be packaged before they are brought to the hall by 9:30 a.m. on October 3. ALL DESSERTS SHOULD BE HOMEMADE COOKIES THAT ARE AT LEAST 3 INCHES IN SIZE. COOKIES ARE TO BE PACKAGE TWO PER BAG. EACH CLUB MUST PROVIDE 120 PACKAGES OF COOKIES.

County Council

The County Council Meeting was rescheduled due to weather concerns last Monday. The meeting will now be held this Monday, September 20 at 6:30 p.m. in the Extension Office Conference Room.

County Food Show and Food Challenge

Hallettsville Youth Center

October 23rd and 24th

Food Show- 10/23 1:00 - 3:00

Food Challenge - 10/24 1:00-4:30

Submit the entry form included in this email to participate!

Times are tentative and will be finalized once the number of entries are confirmed.

All actively enrolled members and clovers kids are invited to participate in the County Food Show. The Food Show theme is Backyard BBQ. ** it is important to note that recipes may not be prepared on outdoor grills. Clover kids will not compete but will have the opportunity to show the food that they made.

Food Challenge participants must be actively enrolled members (3rd - 12th grade) and are responsible for compiling their own team supply boxes. Watch the county website for the contest guidelines to post soon. We are still waiting to hear from District.
